

ETHICS

There is a way to combat fraud, waste,
or abuse.

You!

Do not hesitate
to report fraud,
waste, abuse,
mismanagement,
or inefficiency
issues.

What is the SSC SD Hotline?

The SSC SD Hotline telephone number and e-mail address are special avenues created for employees to report fraud, waste, or abuse. These hotlines were designed with you in mind.

By using the hotline, you can report fraud, waste, abuse, mismanagement, inefficiency, misconduct, or other related issues.

The hotline only works through your support. If you don't report government abuses, the hotline cannot function.

Use the hotline to report fraud, waste, or abuse within the SSC SD community or the U.S. Navy. Suspected misconduct in other agencies needs to be reported to that cognizant agency.

Don't be afraid to report something suspicious.

Only by speaking out can something be done.

Every hotline call is taken seriously.

Each call is carefully reviewed to determine if fraud, waste, or abuse is indicated.

If specific criteria are met, something will be done.

HOTLINE

What now?

You suspect someone or some business entity is acting fraudulently, or you are aware of misconduct or mismanagement.

You give specifics concerning the issue you are reporting. If possible, provide supporting documentation to assist with the complaint. (This is vital if you wish to remain anonymous since we have no way of contacting you if we have further questions, etc.)

SSC SD's investigative staff of the Command Evaluation Group will review your information and determine if the complaint warrants investigation.
